MOTION FOR ORDERS APPROVING (I) (A) BID PROCEDURES, (B) PROCEDURES AND NOTICE RELATING TO THE ASSUMPTION AND ASSIGNMENT OF CERTAIN EXECUTORY CONTRACTS AND UNEXPIRED LEASES, (C) BREAK-UP FEE; AND (II) (A) FORM OF ASSET PURCHASE AGREEMENT, (B) THE SALE OF SUBSTANTIALLY ALL OF THE DEBTOR'S ASSETS OUTSIDE THE ORDINARY COURSE OF BUSINESS, FREE AND CLEAR OF ALL LIENS, CLAIMS, ENCUMBRANCES, AND INTERESTS, (C) ASSUMPTION AND ASSIGNMENT OF CERTAIN EXECUTORY CONTRACTS AND UNEXPIRED LEASES, AND (D) WAIVER OF THE 14-DAY STAY OF FED. R. BANKR. P. 6004(h) AND 6006(d)

Thrush Aircraft, Inc., debtor and debtor in possession (the “Debtor” or “Seller” or “Thrush”) submits this motion pursuant to sections 105, 363, 365, 503, and 506 of title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101-1532 (the “Bankruptcy Code”), and Rules 2002, 3012, 6004, 6006, 9007 and 9014 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”), for entry of orders seeking various types of relief in conjunction with the proposed sale of substantially all of its assets (the “Motion”). In support of this Motion, the Debtor respectfully represents as follows:

Preliminary Statement and Relief Requested

1. This Motion, and the accompanying Chapter 11 bankruptcy filing by the Debtor, represents the culmination of an effort by the Debtor and its professionals to preserve the going concern value of the Debtor for the benefit of its customers, creditors, vendors, employees, and the Albany community as a whole.

2. To accomplish this, the Debtor seeks two types of relief by this Motion. First, the Debtor seeks approval of procedures to allow for an auction of substantially all of its assets, including certain bidding protections for the proposed Stalking Horse Bidder (as defined below). Second, upon conclusion of the auction, the Debtor seeks a hearing in which it will request that this Court approve the sale, free and clear of all liens, approve the assumption and assignment of contracts to the winning bidder, and waive the automatic supersedeas provisions of Bankruptcy Rules 6004 and 6006 so that the sale can close promptly upon the satisfaction of all closing conditions.

3. As to the first relief requested, the Debtor requests that the Court hold a hearing (the “Bid Procedures Hearing”) and enter an order (the “Bidding Procedures Order”) no later than seven (7) days after the date hereof, approving (i) the proposed bid procedures (the “Bid Procedures”), (ii) the form of notice and procedures relating to the assumption and assignment of certain executory contracts and unexpired leases (the “Procedures for Assumption and Assignment”), and (iii) the Break-Up Fee (as defined below).

4. A copy of the proposed Bidding Procedures Order is attached hereto as Exhibit A. If the Bidding Procedures Order is not entered within seven (7) days of the date hereof, the Debtor will likely be in a precarious financial position as it only has limited funds to continue to operate during the limited production period. Additionally, under the terms of the Agreement, the Stalking Horse Bidder has agreed to add $100,000.00 to the Purchase Price as an additional incentive if the transaction is approved by the Court on or before Friday, November 1, 2019.

5. As to the second relief requested, the Debtor further requests that the Court conduct a second hearing (the “Sale Hearing”) to be held no later than three (3) days after the Auction, if any, and enter an order (the “Sale Order”) approving (i) the Agreement (as defined below), (ii) the sale of the assets of the Debtor outside the ordinary course of business, free and clear of any and all interest, liens, claims, and encumbrances, (iii) the assumption and assignment of certain executory contracts and unexpired leases in connection with such sale, (iv) valuation of various claims in connection with the proposed disposition, and (v) the waiver of the stay provisions of Bankruptcy Rules 6004(h) and 6006(d). Additionally, the Agreement contains an incentive of $100,000.00 added to the Purchase Price if the transaction is approved by the Court on or before Friday, November 1, 2019. The Debtor believes that this timeframe is sufficient in light of the exhaustive efforts already put forth by the Debtor to market the business.

Jurisdiction, Venue and Background

6. This Court has jurisdiction over this case pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409. This Motion is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2)(A) and (N).

7. The statutory predicates for the relief requested in this Motion are Sections 105(a), 363, and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 2002, 6004, 6006, and 9014.

8. On September 4, 2019 (the “Petition Date”), the Debtor filed a voluntary petition with the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Middle District of Georgia, Albany Division under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. Since the Petition Date, the Debtor has operated and managed its business as a debtor-in-possession pursuant to Sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

9. As the date hereof, an official committee of unsecured creditors has been appointed and organized (the “Unsecured Creditors Committee”).

10. Thrush is a manufacturer of single engine turbine powered aircraft (the “Business”). Headquartered in Albany, Georgia, Thrush manufactures and sells a full range of aerial application aircraft utilized in agriculture, forestry, and firefighting roles worldwide. Thrush currently offers and actively sells to customers throughout the world five different models of aircraft, utilizing engines manufactured by both Pratt & Whitney and General Electric. Moreover, Thrush’s agricultural models have evolved into new uses in other industries, such as border patrol and reconnaissance for world governments.

11. In 2017, due to a lack of operating capital and various defaults with its primary secured lender, Wells Fargo Bank, National Association (“Wells Fargo”), it became abundantly clear that Thrush needed to find a buyer for the Business through a sale of assets or an equity exchange. Thrush embarked on a widely announced marketing effort that it was in search for a potential purchaser. During the course of time, many interested investors showed interest in acquisition of the Business, but none came to a final offer and some even said they would not be interested in purchasing unless the Assets of Thrush are sold through a bankruptcy case. During this marketing period, Thrush continued to operate to yield the highest value for the Business. The reason for the continued operation is twofold. First, if the Business were to close the FAA Production Certificate for the facility in Albany could be revoked by the FAA, thereby substantially reducing the marketability of the Business and causing a purchaser great expense to obtain the same again from the FAA thereby reducing the value for Thrush’s creditors. Second, if the Business were to close many of the highly skilled employees would simply leave Albany and it would be difficult for a purchaser to rehire employees or retrain new employees for continued production.

12. In October 2017, Thrush engaged Nexa Capital Partners, LLC (“Nexa”) to develop a list of potential purchasers for a limited six month period. Nexa’s efforts yielded a list of 30 potential purchasers, of which nine expressed an interest and three prepared some form of verbal or written offer. Nonetheless, a transaction never came to fruition. The Stalking Horse Bidder was not among the parties interested at such time.

13. With such a long marketing period, Thrush continued to incur substantial losses resulting in the drastic measures to reduce expenses including implementing many costs reductions and the eventual and unfortunate reduction of 110 employees on August 28, 2019, following dissemination of a notice under the WARN Act. Since August 28, 2019, Thrush has continued to operate on a limited basis with 50 employees in order to continue to build out six aircraft and maintain the value of the Business for creditors and other stake holders.

14. The primary objective of this case to liquidate through a sale of substantially all of the Debtor’s assets as a going concern. Since the Petition Date, Thrush has received an offer for the Business from HHM Aviation Financing, LLC (the “Stalking Horse Bidder”). In order to yield the highest and best value for the Business, Thrush files this Motion.

Stalking Horse Bidder’s Asset Purchase Agreement

15. The Debtor has engaged in extensive, good faith and arm’s length negotiations with the Stalking Horse Bidder regarding the terms of an asset purchase agreement. These negotiations culminated in that certain Asset Purchase Agreement between the Debtor and the Stalking Horse Bidder (the “Agreement”),¹ a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit B, pursuant to which, and subject to Court approval, the Stalking Horse Bidder has agreed to purchase substantially all of the Debtor’s assets (the “Acquired Assets”) on an “as is, where is, with all faults” basis in exchange for:

a. $3,900,000.00 (subject to the adjustments described below, “Cash Price to Wells Fargo”), which includes $250,000.00 for satisfaction of Seller’s P-Card indebtedness to Wells Fargo, plus

b. a promissory note in the principal amount of $1,150,000.00, payable by Purchaser to the order of Wells Fargo (or Ex-Im Bank, as assignee), in the form attached as Schedule 2.3(b)(iii) to the Agreement, with interest to accrue annually on the unpaid principal amount of 5.00% per year, principal and interest shall be payable in one installment of interest only due one year after the Closing Date, three consecutive semi-annual installments thereafter of interest only, and the final installments of the full balance of principal and accrued but unpaid interest due and payable on the first day of the 36th month after the Closing Date (“Promissory Note Purchase Price”), plus

c. the forgiveness or assumption of Seller’s obligations under the DIP Indebtedness (“DIP Forgiveness Amount”), plus

d. the aggregate sum of the amounts that Purchaser and the payees of those promissory notes identified on Schedule 2.2(a) (“Promissory Notes Payment”) have negotiated as the amount to be received by the payees of the promissory notes, as identified and reported to the Bankruptcy Court prior to seven (7) days before the Auction Date (whether paid at Closing or through delivery of Purchaser’s promissory note to the payee), and plus

e. the aggregate amount of money necessary to cure all pre-Closing defaulted obligations owed under the Assigned Contracts to be assumed by the Debtor and assigned to the Stalking Horse Bidder, as such contracts and cure amounts are identified on Schedule 2.1(a)(ii) to the Agreement (“Assigned Contracts Cure Amount”); provided, however, that the Assigned Contracts Cure Amount shall not be taken into account for purposes of determining the Topping Bid under Section 8.3 of the Agreement, but the Promissory Notes Payment shall be taken into account for purposes of determining the Topping Bid under Section 8.3 of the Agreement.

The Cash Price to Wells Fargo (as increased or decreased in accordance with the adjustments described in this Section 15), the Promissory Note Purchase Price, the DIP Forgiveness Amount and the Promissory Notes Payment are collectively referred to as “Aggregate Purchase Price”).

The Cash Price to Wells Fargo payable at Closing shall be subject to the following adjustments: (i) the Cash Price to Wells Fargo shall be reduced by an amount equal to the gross sales proceeds received by Seller for the sale of a certain experimental aircraft currently being utilized in connection with a new engine certification program for General Electric (the “Experimental Aircraft”), if the Experimental Aircraft is sold and the sales proceeds are received by Seller before the Closing Date; (ii) the Cash Price to Wells Fargo shall be increased by $100,000.00 if the Sale Order is entered by the Bankruptcy Court no later than November 1, 2019; (iii) the Cash Price to Wells Fargo shall be increased by $100,000.00 if Wells Fargo Equipment Finance, Inc. (“WFEF”) agrees to accept such payment in satisfaction in full of its promissory notes and to release all its liens on equipment identified as 001-0331232-703 and 001-0331232-704, with such $100,000.00 to be paid to WFEF, and (iv) the Cash Price to Wells Fargo shall be increased by an amount equal to $75,000 for each of the five aircraft identified in the budget attached to the Debtor’s first-day pleadings (the “Designated Aircraft”) that has not been sold by Seller before the Closing Date, provided, however, that the amount payable for each unsold Designated Aircraft shall be paid to Wells Fargo, after the Closing Date, upon the receipt of sales proceeds for such Designated Aircraft but in no event later than 90 days after the Closing Date.

All amounts payable to Wells Fargo or WFEF shall be payable and paid without defense, offset, deduction, or counterclaim .

16. The Debtor has determined that the Stalking Horse Bidder’s offer for the Acquired Assets, pursuant to the Agreement, is fair, reasonable, and in the best interest of the Debtor's estate, its creditors, and all other parties in interest, and that the floor established for the proposed sale of the Acquired Assets, subject to higher and better bids pursuant to an open auction process approved by the Court, affords the Debtor the best opportunity to maximize value for its creditors.

17. To ensure that the Debtor has maximized the value of the Acquired Assets, the Stalking Horse Bidder has agreed that the sale of the Acquired Assets must be subject to the Bid Procedures below, which are incorporated into the Agreement and the Bidding Procedures Order.

18. The Bid Procedures contemplate entry of the Bidding Procedures Order by the Court approving the Bid Procedures no later than seven (7) days of the date hereof and that the Court will conduct a sale hearing and enter the Sale Order no later than one (1) day after the Auction, if any. The Debtor believes that the timeframe set forth in the Bid Procedures is reasonable and permits other entities sufficient time to satisfy the criteria to become a Qualified Bidder (as defined in the Bid Procedures). While the Debtor does contemplate a sales process that is quick when measured from the date hereof, this sale process has been on-going since 2017, and the parties most likely to submit a higher or better bid are already well aware of the Debtor and its assets, and should be able to move quickly, if they are interested.

19. In order to induce the Stalking Horse Bidder to enter into the Agreement, and as a part of extensive negotiations between the Stalking Horse Bidder and the Debtor, the Stalking Horse Bidder required (and the Debtor agreed to grant, subject to this Court's approval), a combined breakup fee and expense reimbursement in the amount of $200,000.00 (the "Break-Up Fee").

The Bid Procedures and Auction Procedures

20. The Bid Procedures describe, among other things, the assets available for sale, the manner in which bidders and bids become "qualified," the coordination of diligence efforts among Qualified Bidders (as defined below) and the Debtor, the receipt and negotiation of bids received, the conduct of any auction, and the selection and approval of the Prevailing Bid (as defined below). The Bid Procedures and Auction Procedures were developed consistent with the Debtor's competing needs to promote participation and active bidding, and to comply with the terms and conditions of the Agreement, and the risk of business disruption associated with a prolonged stay in bankruptcy.

21. The Debtor requests that this Court authorize the Debtor to solicit bids for and conduct the sale of the Acquired Assets using the following procedures:

A. Requirements Applicable to all Qualified Bids: These procedures govern offers for the Acquired Assets ("Bids") submitted both prior to and during the Auction. Bids submitted in conformity with the requirements specified in subsections (1) through (5), below, are Qualified Bids and may be considered by the Seller. Defined terms in these Bid Procedures shall have the meanings assigned in the Template APA (defined below).

- (1) Bidder Qualifications. The Stalking Horse Bidder is deemed to be a Qualified Bidder at the Auction. No other prospective bidder will be permitted to bid pre-Auction or at the Auction unless such party has been deemed "financially qualified" by the Debtor and its counsel Stone & Baxter, LLP ("S&B"). A "financially qualified" bidder is one who has demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Debtor and S&B that it has the financial and other wherewithal and is properly authorized to consummate the transaction contemplated by the bid and to Close on or before November 15, 2019, or who has provided satisfactory proof of authorization and committed lending sufficient to consummate the transaction (a "Qualified Bidder"). All Bids and inquiries prior to the Auction must be submitted through S&B.
- (2) Bids to be written and substantially uniform. Bids submitted pre-Auction and at the Auction must be substantively in the form of the template asset purchase agreement attached to the Motion as Exhibit B (the "Template APA"). The Bid must be delivered to the Seller, through S&B, in the form of an executed "clean" version of the Template APA, accompanied by a redlined version to reflect any proposed changes to the terms and conditions of the Template APA. A Microsoft Word® Version of the Template APA may be obtained by contacting S&B.
- (3) Absence of Contingencies. Submission of a Qualified Bid shall not constitute a waiver of any unsatisfied condition precedent described in Section 3.1 of the Template APA, except that the following conditions shall be waived by the submission of a Qualified Bid: (1) any due diligence contingency, (2) any financing contingency; and (3) approval from any board of directors, shareholders, or otherwise. No Qualified Bid may be reduced, revoked, or withdrawn prior to the end of the Auction. Except for the Stalking Horse Bid and any Qualified Bid announced as the opening Qualified Bid at the Auction, Bids delivered prior to the beginning of the Auction will not be shared among Bidders.

- (4) The Bid Deadline and the Topping Bid. All Qualified Bids must be received prior to 5:00 p.m. local time in Macon, Georgia on Friday, October 25, 2019 (the “Bid Deadline”). Topping Bid means a Qualified Bid that provides a purchase price equal to or greater than the sum of (1) the Cash Price to Wells Fargo, plus (2) the Promissory Note Purchase Price, plus (3) the DIP Forgiveness Amount, plus (4) the Promissory Notes Payment (as identified and reported to the Bankruptcy Court prior to seven (7) days before the Auction Date), and plus (5) $250,000.00 (the “Topping Bid”). The amount of the Topping Bid will be announced to all known Qualified Bidders on or before October 23, 2019. If a Qualified Bid that is a Topping Bid is received, the Auction will be held in accordance with the procedures below. If a Topping Bid is not received by the Bid Deadline, the Debtor will dispense with the Auction.
- (5) Good Faith Deposit. Bids submitted pre-Auction must be accompanied by a cash or cash-equivalent earnest money deposit in the amount of $250,000.00 (the “Good Faith Deposit”) under substantially similar terms as the Agreement. The Good Faith Deposit must be tendered by each Qualified Bidder by the time of submittal of such party’s Topping Bid, by wire transfer or in cash-equivalent certified funds. The Good Faith Deposit will be forfeited in the event the Bidder of a Prevailing Bid or Back-Up Bid defaults under the terms of Template APA (or, if applicable, the Stalking Horse APA) evidencing the Accepted or Provisionally Accepted Bid. Good Faith Deposits will be refunded to unsuccessful Bidders, other than Back-Up Bids, within one (1) business day following Court Approval. Refunds to Back-Up Bids will be made within one (1) Business Day following the Closing of the Prevailing Bid. Qualified Credit Bidders shall not be required to tender a Good Faith Deposit.

B. The Auction. Subject to subparagraph A(4) above, the Acquired Assets will be offered for sale at Auction. Bids will be solicited and entertained by the Seller substantially in accordance with the provisions of these Procedures, subject to announcements at the beginning of the Auction. Announcements by the Seller at the Auction will supplement the following Procedures, unless inconsistent with an express requirement set out below. Announcements and Bids made at the Auction will be recorded and transcribed by a Certified Court Reporter(s) (the “Bid Record”).

- (1) Simultaneous Auction. All assets of the Debtor will be auctioned simultaneously, with Qualified Bids sought in each round. Qualified Bidders may select which executory contracts and Promissory Note Payments of the Debtor they wish to have included in their bids as each round of bids is submitted. Rounds will continue until such time as no higher or better Qualified Bids are offered. Any Bid not designated as the Prevailing Bid or a Back-Up Bid shall be deemed rejected at the time Court Authorization is obtained on the Prevailing Bid and Back-Up Bid.

- (2) Announcement of Highest and Best Qualified Bid at Beginning of Auction. The highest and best Qualified Bid received prior to the beginning of the Auction will be announced as the opening bid. At the Auction, Qualified Bidders and/or the Stalking Horse Bidder (it being understood that the Stalking Horse Bidder shall be deemed to be a Qualified Bidder) may submit successive bids in increments of at least $50,000.00 (“Incremental Bids”) cash greater than the prior bid for the purchase of the Acquired Assets until there is only one offer that the Debtor determines (in the exercise of its reasonable discretion) is the highest or best offer for the Acquired Assets (the “Prevailing Bid”).
- (3) Conduct of Auction. The Auction will continue until bidding is complete and the Seller, after consulting with Wells Fargo and the Unsecured Creditors Committee, selects the Prevailing and Back-Up Bid(s), and determines that such bid(s) are from Qualified Bidders. Qualified Bidders will be polled for bids in each round in the order in which bids were received, ending with the Stalking Horse Bidder.
- (4) Qualified Bidder Representative Must Be Present at the Auction. Qualified Bidders must be represented by a representative who is physically present at the Auction with authority to sign all written amendments to the Template APA submitted in advance of or at the Auction that are necessary to conform the Template APA to each bid made by such Qualified Bidder at the Auction (a “Qualified Bidder Representative”). Qualified Bidder Representatives must register with and be certified by S&B prior to being able to participate in the Auction.
- (5) Bids at the Auction Must Be in Writing. Incremental Bids submitted by Qualified Bidders at each round of the Auction must be announced from a designated podium and recorded in the Bid Record. Verbal bids must be conformed to each Qualified Bidder’s Template APA and initialed by the bidder’s authorized representative before the next round of bidding. Adequate time between rounds of bidding will be granted to allow the written bids to be conformed to reflect the increased bids offered through the preceding round.
- (6) Bid Value of Assumed Liabilities. The bid value of Assumed Liabilities included in any bids (which, solely for purposes of determining the Prevailing Bid, shall be deemed to include the Promissory Notes Payment described the Agreement with the Stalking Horse Bidder) will be determined by the Debtor in its absolute discretion, provided that the Debtor shall determine the bid value of each Assumed Liability consistently for all Bids submitted which include such Assumed Liability in the Aggregate Purchase Price.

- (8) Rejection of Bids. The Debtor reserves the right to reject any or all Qualified Bids at any time before a Qualified Bid is accepted as a Prevailing Bid.
- (9) Credit Bids. A Bidder holding a claim found by the Bankruptcy Court to be an allowed claim that is secured by property of the Debtor's estate may "credit bid" at the Auction (a "Qualified Credit Bid"), to the extent authorized by 11 U.S.C. § 363 (k) (a "Credit Bidder"), provided that such Credit Bidder has filed a proof of claim in the bankruptcy case and been financially qualified by S&B with respect to their ability to pay or otherwise satisfy at Closing: (i) all amounts required to be paid at the Closing under the Template APA and (ii) the amount of the Bid in excess of the Credit Bid ("Qualified Credit Bidder"). Qualified Credit Bids are subject to all requirements of these Sales Procedures.
- (10) Announcement of Provisionally Accepted Bids. At the conclusion of the Auction, the Debtor will announce the highest and best bid or Prevailing Bid. The Debtor will then accept the second highest and best bid as the Back-Up Bid (the "Back-Up Bid"). Final Asset Purchase Agreements will be executed by the Debtor and each of the parties constituting the Prevailing Bid and the Back-Up Bid before leaving the Auction.
- (11) Location of and Admission to the Auction. The Auction will be conducted at the at the Cherry Blossom Suite, Fickling & Co. Building, Suite 1600, 577 Mulberry Street, Macon, Georgia 31201, or at such other location as may be designated by the Debtor commencing at 10:00 o'clock, a.m. Eastern Time on the 29th day of October, 2019 and will continue from day-to-day or time-to-time until the Prevailing Bid and Back-Up Bid are announced. The Auction will be a private sale. Only Qualified Bidders and parties in interest in the Bankruptcy Case, or their authorized representatives or attorneys, will be admitted, in person, to the Auction. There will be no provision for general telephone monitoring of the Auction, but Qualified Bidder Representatives may communicate by electronic or any other means with Qualified Bidders between each round of bidding.
- (13) Interested Party Consultations. The Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Unsecured Creditors Committee"), holders of claims filed as secured in the Bankruptcy Case (whether or not "allowed" by order of the Court as of the time of the Auction), parties to Capital Leases with the Debtor, and the United States Trustee or her representative may attend the Auction, and provided such parties are in attendance at the Auction, are "Interested Parties" for the purpose of these Bid Procedures.

Before the beginning of the Auction and between any round of bidding, upon request of any Interested Party or its authorized counsel in attendance at the Auction, the Seller and S&B will consult with such Interested Party concerning any matter pertaining to the Auction. The consultations will be held outside of the bidding room and shall not unduly delay the Auction. No objection by an Interested Party to any announcement made at the Auction or to any Bid or other occurrence during the Auction shall be stated on the Bid Record or communicated to a Qualified Bidder, but shall be directed solely to the Debtor and to S&B and, if so directed and not resolved, shall be stated on the Bid Record following the final round of bidding and shall thereupon be deemed preserved until the conclusion of opening statements at the Sale Hearing (as defined below).

- (14) Hearing on Approval of Sale. Following the conclusion of the Auction, pursuant to the Motion Seeking Authority to Sell the Assets, the Seller will seek authorization from the Bankruptcy Court to sell the Acquired Assets to the Qualified Bidder submitting the Prevailing Bid or Back-Up Bid, as applicable, and to consummate the sale. Such hearing will be held in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Middle District of Georgia, in the Courtroom B of such Court, located at 433 Cherry Street, Macon, GA 31201, or at such other location as may be designated by the Court, commencing at 10:00 a.m. Eastern Time on the 30th day of October, 2019, or such later date and time set by the Bankruptcy Court, (the “Sale Hearing”). The Bankruptcy Court will be requested to enter an Order authorizing the Seller to consummate the sale under 11 U.S.C. § 363, which Order will constitute Court Approval of the Sale (“Court Authorization”). No person shall have standing to appear and be heard at the Sale Hearing except as provided by law. No provision of these Bid Procedures, the certification of any person as a Qualified Bidder, attendance at the Auction, or the submittal of any Bid at the Auction, shall be construed to confer standing upon any person to appear and be heard at the Sale Hearing.
- (15) Closing; Back-Bids. If the Closing and receipt by the Debtor’s estate of the cash consideration does not occur with respect to any Prevailing Bid on or before December 1, 2019, then the Debtor may close with Back-Up Bid.

22. The Debtor believes that these Bid Procedures provide an appropriate framework for selling the Acquired Assets in a uniform fashion and will enable the Debtor to review, analyze and compare all bids received to determine the highest and best bid.

Procedures for Assumption and Assignment of Contracts and Unexpired Leases

23. To facilitate and consummate the sale of the Acquired Assets, the Debtor seeks approval of the assumption and assignment to the Stalking Horse Bidder (or to such other successful bidder ultimately selected by the Debtor pursuant to the Bid Procedures) of certain executory contracts and unexpired leases related to the Acquired Assets (all such executory contracts and unexpired leases being collectively referred to as the “Assigned Contracts”). The Assigned Contracts subject to assumption and assignment, unless the Stalking Horse Bidder revises such list in its discretion, are an exhibit to the Agreement.

24. No later than three (3) business days after entry of the Bidding Procedures Order, the Debtor will serve the counterparties (the “Counterparties”) to the Assigned Contracts with a detailed notice (the “Notice of Assumption and Assignment of Contract”) that contains the following information: (a) notice of the Debtor’s intent to assume and assign certain of the Assigned Contracts to the Stalking Horse Bidder (or to such other successful bidder ultimately selected by the Debtor pursuant to the Bid Procedures), effective as of the date of the closing of the transaction with such party (the “Closing”), (b) a list of the Assigned Contracts, including the Assigned Contracts Cure Amount for each Assigned Contract that is designated to be assigned and assumed and that is required to be cured pursuant to Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, (c) the procedures for filing any objections to the assumption and assignment of the Assigned Contracts or the proposed Assigned Contracts Cure Amount. The form of the Notice of Assumption and Assignment of Contract, attached as Schedule 1 to the Bidding Procedures Order shall be subject to prior Court approval. Each Notice of Assumption and Assignment of Contract shall be deemed a contested matter in accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 6006. The presence of a contract, lease, or agreement on the Notice of Assumption and Assignment of Contract does not constitute an admission that such contract, lease, or agreement is an executory contract. The Debtor reserves all of its rights, claims, defenses, and causes of action with respect to all contracts, leases, and agreement listed on the Notice of Assumption and Assignment of Contract.

25. The Notice of Assumption and Assignment of Contract shall also provide that objections to any Assigned Contracts Cure Amount or to assumption and assignment will be heard at the Sale Hearing or at a later hearing, as determined by the Debtor. If the Prevailing Bid is not that of the Stalking Horse Purchaser, then the deadline to object to assumption and assignment (including on grounds of adequate assurance of future performance) shall be extended to the date of the Sale Hearing; provided, however, that the deadline to object to the Assigned Contracts Cure Amounts shall not be extended.

26. Prior to the Sale Hearing, the Debtor shall designate the final list of Assigned Contracts to be assigned to and assumed by the Stalking Horse Bidder (or to such other successful bidder ultimately selected by the Debtor pursuant to the Bid Procedures) at Closing pursuant to the Sale Order (the “Assigned Contracts”).

Basis for Relief

A. The Bid Procedures Are Appropriate and in the Best Interest of the Debtor, the Estate, and Creditors.

i. The Bid Procedures are reasonable, appropriate, and will maximize value.

27. The paramount goal in any proposed sale of property of the estate is to maximize the proceeds received by the estate. See In re Mushroom Transp. Co., 382 F.3d 325, 339 (3d Cir. 2004) (debtor in possession “had a fiduciary duty to protect and maximize the estate’s assets”); Official Comm. of Unsecured Creditors of Cybergenics, Corp. v. Chinery, 330 F.3d 548, 573 (3d Cir. 2003) (same); Four B. Corp. v. Food Barn Stores, Inc., 107 F.3d 558, 564-65 (8th Cir. 1997) (in bankruptcy sales, “a primary objection of the Code [is] to enhance the value of the estate at hand”).

28. To that end, courts uniformly recognize that procedures to enhance competitive bidding are consistent with the goal of maximizing the value received by the estate and therefore are appropriate in the context of bankruptcy transactions. See In re O’Brien Envtl. Energy, Inc., 181 F.3d 527, 537 (3d Cir. 1999); see also Official Comm. of Subordinated Bondholders v.

Integrated Res. Inc., 147 B.R. 650, 659 (S.D.N.Y. 1992) (bidding procedures “encourage bidding...maximize the value of the debtor’s assets”).

29. The Debtor believes that the Bid Procedures will increase the likelihood that the Debtor will receive the greatest possible price for the Acquired Assets because such procedures will ensure a competitive and fair bidding process. Debtor also believes that the Bid Procedures will promote active bidding from seriously interested parties and will generate the highest or otherwise best offer reasonably available for the Acquired Assets. The Bid Procedures will allow the Debtor to conduct the Auction in a controlled, fair and open manner that will encourage participation by financially capable bidders that demonstrate the ability to close the sale. The Debtor believes that the Bid Procedures will encourage bidding, are consistent with other procedures previously approved by courts in this and other districts, and are appropriate under the relevant standard governing auction proceedings and bidding incentives in bankruptcy proceedings. See In re O’Brien Envtl. Energy, Inc., 181 F.3d at 537.

30. Additionally, the Debtor is required to complete the auction and sale process on the timetable set forth in the Bid Procedures and required under the Agreement, which timetable is integral to the sale process and, the Debtor submits, is fair and reasonable in light of the circumstances of this Chapter 11 case.

31. The Debtor requests that the Court approve the Bid Procedures as fair and reasonable under the circumstances and authorize and direct the Debtor to proceed in accordance with them.

ii. The Break-Up Fee amount is reasonable and appropriate.

32. In order to induce the Stalking Horse Bidder to enter into the Agreement, and as a part of extensive negotiations between the Stalking Horse Bidder and the Debtor, the Stalking Horse Bidder required (and the Debtor agreed to grant), the Break-Up Fee in the amount of $200,000.00 as provided in and subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Agreement and Bidding Procedures.

33. In the context of bankruptcy cases, it is appropriate to grant buyer protections to prospective purchasers. Buyer protections (including expense reimbursements and breakup fees) are designed to compensate a prospective purchaser for the costs and risk involved in preparing and proposing a bid that will establish a minimum standard for competing bids. See Integrated Resources, 147 B.R. at 658 (breakup fees are “important tools to encourage bidding and to maximize the value of the debtor’s assets”); In re APP Plus, Inc., 223 B.R. 870, 874 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. 1998) (breakup fees compensate a prospective purchaser “for the time, efforts, resources, lost opportunity costs and risks incurred.”).

34. In Integrated Resources, the court identified the following facts in determining whether to approve a breakup fee: (1) whether the negotiations of the fee are tainted by self-dealing or manipulation, (2) whether the existence of the fee hampers rather than encourages other bidding, and (3) whether the amount of the fee is reasonable relative to the proposed purchase price. Integrated Resources, 147 B.R. at 662. See also APP Plus, 223 B.R. at 875.

35. With respect to the first Integrated Resources factor, the Break-Up Fee is the result of arm’s length negotiations involving the Debtor and the Stalking Horse Bidder, in consultation with their respective counsel.

36. Second, the Agreement will enhance the bidding for the Acquired Assets by generating increased interest among other potential bidders and providing a baseline by which the Debtor can evaluate competing bids, including the minimum acceptable terms on which the proposed transaction can proceed. Id. Therefore, rather than “chilling” the bidding process, the Debtor believes that the Break-Up will initiate the bidding process, will continue to encourage this process, and should be approved by the Court. See In re Wintz Companies, 230 B.R. 840, 846 (8th Cir. B.A.P. 1999) (noting that courts have permitted breakup fees when they encourage rather than discourage bidding).

37. As to the third factor, the amount of the Break-Up Fee is not unreasonable in comparison to the size of the transaction. In light of this total transaction value, the Break-Up Fee (including reimbursement of expenses) will be approximately 3.2% to 3.4% of the total consideration (not including the payment by the Stalking Horse Bidder of the Assigned Contracts Cure Amount and the Promissory Notes Payment, each of which will increase the total consideration and lower the aforementioned percentage). This is in line with other case law. See, e.g. Integrated Resources, 147 B.R. at 662 (breakup fee of up to 3.2%, plus reimbursement of expenses, found to be reasonable; expert testimony acknowledged that the average breakup fee is 3.3%); In re Firstline Corporation, No. 06-70145 (Bankr. M.D. Ga. Aug. 16, 2006) (J. Walker) (approving breakup fees equal to 2.25% and 2.6% of the cash purchase price); In re AtheroGenics, Inc., No. 08-78200 (Bankr. N.D. Ga. March 17, 2009) (J. Massey) (approving breakup fee equal to 10% of the cash purchase price and approving additional expense reimbursement in an amount up to 10% of the case purchase price); In re Dan River, Inc., No. 04-10990 (Bankr. N.D. Ga. Dec. 17, 2004) (J. Drake) (approving a breakup fee equal to 5.3% of the cash purchase price).

38. The Third Circuit Court of Appeals has also addressed the appropriate standard for determining whether proposed bidding incentives in the bankruptcy context are appropriate. In Calpine Corp. v. O'Brien Envtl. Energy, Inc., 181 F.3d 527 (3d Cir. 1999), the Court of Appeals held that even though bidding incentives are measured against a business judgment standard in non-bankruptcy transactions, the administrative expense provisions of Section 503(h) of the Bankruptcy Code govern bidding incentives in the bankruptcy context. Finding no “compelling justification” for treating an application for breakup fees and expenses under Section 503(b) any differently from other applications for administrative expenses, the Court concluded that, the determination whether break-up fees or expenses are allowable under § 503(b) must be made in reference to general administrative expense jurisprudence. In other words, the allowability of break-up fees, like that of other administrative expenses, depends upon the requesting party’s ability to show that the fees were actually necessary to preserve the value of the estate.

Id. at 535.

39. In O'Brien, the Third Circuit identified at least two circumstances in which bidding incentives may provide actual benefit to the estate, justifying administrative expense status. First, there exists an actual benefit to the estate whether “assurance of a break-up fee promoted more competitive bidding, such as by inducing a bid that otherwise would not have been made and without which bidding would have been limited.” Id. at 537. Second, where the availability of budding incentives induces a prospective buyer to research the value of the debtor and submit a bid that serves as a minimum bid on which other bidders can rely, the initial “bidder may have provided a benefit to the estate by increases the likelihood that the price at which the debtor is sold will reflect its true worth.” Id. Both of those circumstances exist in this case, because the inducement of the Break-Up Fee was critical in persuading the Stalking Horse Bidder to make an initial offer, which will serve as a “floor” for other bidders in connection with the proposed sale process, and to expend the time and resources associated with conducting due diligence regarding the Acquired Assets and with negotiating and entering into the Agreement.

40. Under the “administrative expense standard enunciated in O'Brien, as well as the “sound business judgment” standard followed in other jurisdictions, the Bid Procedures proposed by the Debtor should be approved as fair and reasonable.

iii. The Topping Bid and Subsequent Overbids are reasonable and appropriate.

41. The same is true with respect to the other monetary matters in the Bid Procedures. The Bid Procedures provide that the topping bid (the “Topping Bid”) must equal or exceed the sum of the amount of (1) the Cash Price to Wells Fargo, plus (2) the Promissory Note Purchase Price, plus (3) the DIP Forgiveness Amount, plus (4) the Promissory Notes Payment, and plus (5) $250,000.00. As with Break-Up Fee, the Topping Bid amount is not excessive when taking into account the total transaction value plus the other amounts the Stalking Horse Bidder is paying.

42. The amount of the Topping Bid will be announced to all known Qualified Bidders on or before October 23, 2019.

43. In the event that the Auction is held, bidding shall commence at the amount of the Topping Bid, and the Qualified Bidders may submit successive bids in increments of at least $50,000.00 above the then highest or otherwise best bid.

44. The Debtor believes that such bid increments are reasonable under the circumstances and will enable the Debtor to maximize the value for the Acquired Assets without chilling the bidding process. The Debtor believes that setting the bid increments at $50,000.00 strikes the appropriate balance between maximizing value for creditors and avoiding prohibitively large bid increments that would discourage potential bidders from participating in the sale process.

iv. The Notice and Procedures for Assumption and Assignment are reasonable and appropriate.

45. As part of the relief requested herein, the Debtor also seeks authority under Sections 105(a) and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code to assume and assign the Assigned Contracts to the Stalking Horse Bidder (or to such other successful bidder ultimately selected by the Debtor pursuant to the Bid Procedures). The Bidding Procedures Order specifies the Procedures for Assumption and Assignment, the process by which the Debtor will serve the Notice of Assumption and Assignment of Contracts, and the procedures and deadlines for counterparties to the Assigned Contracts to file objections.

46. The Assumption and Assignment Procedures ensure that each counterparty will have sufficient notice of such assumption and assignment, and an opportunity to contest the Assigned Contracts Cure Amount, if any, for its Assigned Contract, as well as the ability of the Stalking Horse Bidder (or to such other successful bidder ultimately selected by the Debtor pursuant to the Bid Procedures) to provide adequate assurance of future performance with respect to such Assigned Contract.

47. Accordingly, the Debtor submits that the Procedures for Assumption and Assignment are fair and reasonable and respectfully requests that the Court approve such procedures. Assumption and assignment of the Assigned Contracts will be governed by Bankruptcy Rule 6006.

B. Approval of the Sale is Appropriate and in the Best Interest of the Estate.

i. The sale is authorized by Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code as a sound exercise of the Debtor's business judgment.

48. Section 363(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code provides, in relevant part, that a debtor "after notice and hearing, may use, sell, or lease, other than in the ordinary course of business, property of the estate." See also Fed. R. Bankr. Proc. 6004(f)(1) ("All sales not in the ordinary course of business may be by private sale or public auction"). This section generally permits a debtor to sell property of the estate outside of the ordinary course of business where the proposed sale is a sound exercise of the debtor's business judgment and when such sale is proposed in good faith. See Stephens Industries, Inc. v. McClung, 789 F.2d 386, 390 (6th Cir. 1986) ("[A] bankruptcy court can authorize a sale of all of a Chapter 11 debtor's assets under § 363(b)(1) when a sound business purpose dictates such action").

49. In the present case, the proposed sale of the Acquired Assets pursuant to the Agreement constitutes a sound exercise of the Debtor's business judgment and has been proposed in good faith. An expedited sale of the Acquired Assets should aid in minimizing the administrative expenses of the Debtor's estate. Further, the sale represents the best opportunity for the Debtor to maximize the value of the Acquired Assets for the estate's creditors and other interested parties.

50. The Debtor submits that the factors described above, which require an expedited sale of the Acquired Assets to maximize value for the Debtor's estate, are consistent with the traditional rationale for authorizing a sale outside of a Chapter 11 plan.

ii. The sale of the Acquired Assets free and clear of all encumbrances (except for Permitted Encumbrances) is authorized by Section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code.

51. In the interest of attracting the best bids for the Acquired Assets, the Debtor submits that the sale should be free and clear of all liens, claims, and encumbrances (except for Permitted Encumbrances) in accordance with Section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, with any such liens, claims, and encumbrances (except for Permitted Encumbrances) attaching to the proceeds of the sale of the Acquired Assets ultimately attributable to the property against or in which such interest, lien, claim, or encumbrance is asserted.

52. Section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code authorizes a debtor to sell assets free and clear of liens, claims, interests, and encumbrances if (a) applicable non-bankruptcy law permits sale of such property free and clear of such interests; (b) such entity consents; (c) such interest is a lien and the price at which such property is to be sold is greater than the value of all liens on such property; (d) such interest is in bona fide dispute; or (e) such entity could be compelled, in a legal or equitable proceeding, to accept a money satisfaction of such interest. Moreover, Section 363(f) is supplemented by Section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, which provides that “[t]he Court may issue any order, process or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of [the Bankruptcy Code].” 11 U.S.C. § 105(a).

53. Because Section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code is drafted in the disjunctive, satisfaction of any one its five requirements will suffice to permit the sale of the Acquired Assets “free and clear” of all liens, claims and encumbrances (except for Permitted Encumbrances). See In re Kellstrom Indus., Inc., 282 B.R. 787, 793 (Bankr. D. Del. 2002) (“Section 363(f) is written in the disjunctive, not the conjunctive, and if any of the five conditions are met, the debtor has the authority to conduct the sale free and clear of all lines.”); see also Citicorp Homeowners Servs., Inc. v. Elliott, 94 B.R. 343, 345 (E.D. Pa. 1988) (same).

54. The Debtor submits that one or more of the conditions set forth in Section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code will be satisfied with respect to the sale including the consent of lienholders. Approval of the sale free and clear of all interest, liens, claims, and encumbrances is in the best interests of the Debtor's estate, creditors, and other parties in interest. Any proceeds shall be applied in accordance with further order of this Court.

55. Accordingly, the Debtor respectfully requests that the Acquired Assets be sold free and clear of any liens, claims, and encumbrances (except for Permitted Liens and Assigned Contracts, as defined in the Agreement) pursuant to Section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code.

iii. The Stalking Horse Bidder (or such other successful bidder ultimately selected by the Debtor pursuant to the Bid Procedures) is entitled to the full protection of Section 363(m) and the sale does not violate Section 363(n).

56. The Agreement and the transactions related thereto were negotiated and have been and are undertaken by the Debtor and the Stalking Horse Bidder at arm's length, without collusion and in good faith within the meaning of Section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Debtor accordingly requests that the Court determine that the entire sale process was conducted in good faith within the meaning of Section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code and that the Debtor and the Stalking Horse Bidder are entitled to the protections of Section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code. See In re Apex Oil Co., 92 B.R. 847, 874 (Bankr. E.D. Mo. 1988).

57. In the Debtor's view, the Agreement represents substantial value to the Debtor's estate inasmuch as it provides favorable terms for the disposition of the Acquired Assets at a price that represents fair and reasonable consideration having a certain value. See id. at 869. At the conclusion of the bid process and auction opportunity, the Debtor will have the highest and best offer to submit to this Court for approval.

C. Assumption and Assignment of the Assigned Contracts is Authorized by Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code.

i. The Debtor's sound business judgment supports the assumption and assignment of the Assigned Contracts.

58. Section 365(a) of the Bankruptcy Code authorizes a debtor in possession to assume any executory contract or unexpired lease subject to the bankruptcy court's approval.

Section 365(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 6006 requires such debtor-in-possession to satisfy certain requirements at the time of assumption of if default exists under the contract or unexpired lease to be assumed.

59. The standard for determining whether an executory contract or unexpired lease should be assumed is the debtor's "business judgment" that assumption is in its economic best interest. See In re Food Barn Stores, Inc., 107 F.3d 558, 567 n.16 (8th Cir. 1996).

60. The Debtor's assumption and assignment of the Assigned Contracts to the Stalking Horse Bidder (or to such other successful bidder ultimately selected by the Debtor pursuant to the Bid Procedures) meets the business judgment standard and satisfies the requirements of Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 6006 because the assumption and assignment is necessary for the Stalking Horse Bidder (or to such other successful bidder ultimately selected by the Debtor pursuant to the Bid Procedures) to conduct business going forward. Since no purchaser would take the Acquired Assets without certain executory contractors and unexpired leases, the assumption and assignment of such Assigned Contract is essential to securing the highest or otherwise best offer for the Acquired Assets. Further, upon consummation of the sale, the Debtor will no longer continue to operate its business and will therefore have no use for any of the Assigned Contracts previously utilized in the ordinary course of its business operations.

ii. Adequate assurance of future performance will be demonstrated with respect to the Assigned Contracts.

61. Once an executory contract is assumed, the debtor-in-possession may elect to assign such contract if it provides adequate assurance of future performance by the assignee, whether or not there has been a default under the agreement. See 11 U.S.C. § 365(c)(2).

62. The meaning of "adequate assurance of future performance" depends on the facts and circumstances of each case, but should be given "practical, pragmatic construction." EBG Midtown South Corp. v. McLaren/Hart Env'tl. Eng'g Corp., 139 B.R. 585, 592 (S.D.N.Y. 1992), aff'd, 993 F.2d 300 (2d Cir. 1993); In re Prime Motor Inns Inc., 166 B.R. 993, 997 (Bankr. S.D.Fla. 1994). Typically, “the assurance of future performance is likely (i.e. more probable than not),” which notable “falls considerably short of an absolute guarantee of performance.” Prime Motor Inns, 166 B.R. at 997.

63. At the Sale Hearing, the Debtor will establish that the Stalking Horse Bidder (or other successful bidder) has demonstrated adequate assurance of future performance.

64. Accordingly, the Debtor submits that the assumption and assignment of the Assigned Contracts as set forth herein should be approved pursuant to Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code.

D. Elimination of the 14 Day Stay Under Bankruptcy Rules 6004(h) and 6006(d)

65. Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h) provides that “[a]n order authorizing the use, sale, or lease of property other than cash collateral is stayed until the expiration of 14 days after entry of the order, unless the court orders otherwise.” Fed. R. Bank. P. 6004(h).

66. Similarly, Bankruptcy Rule 6006(d) provides that “[a]n order authorizing the [debtor] to assign an executory contract or unexpired...is stayed until the expiration of 14 days after entry of the order, unless the court orders otherwise.” Id. at 6006(d).

67. The Debtor submits that ample cause exists to justify a waiver of the 14 day stays under Bankruptcy Rules 6004(h) and 6006(d) in connection with this sale. Time is of the essence in approving and closing the sale, and any unnecessary delay in closing the sale could result in changes in circumstance, or events that could preclude the closing of the sale. The Debtor therefore requests that the Sale Order be effective immediately by providing that the 14 day stays under Bankruptcy Rules 6004(h) and 6006(d) be waived.

Notice

68. The Debtor has provided notice of this Motion by via the CM/ECF system or regular mail to: (i) the Office of the United States Trustee for the Middle District of Georgia; (ii) each of the Debtor’s creditors, including Respondents hereto; (iii) counsel to the Unsecured Creditors Committee; (iv) the Internal Revenue Service; (v) other relevant taxing authorities; (vi) counsel to the Stalking Horse Bidder; (vii) other prospective bidders for the Acquired Assets known to the Debtor, including all persons who previously expressed an interest as a potential purchaser; and (viii) all parties registered on the CM/ECF system. The Debtor respectfully submits that no further notice of this Motion is required.

69. Upon the entry thereof by the Court, the Debtor will serve the Bid Procedures Order on all persons provided with notice of this Motion.

70. The Debtor will, in accordance with the Sale Order, provide notice to counterparties of the possible assumption and assignment of executory contracts and leases by serving the Notice of Assumption and Assignment of Contract on such counterparties.

71. The Debtor submits that these notice periods comply with Bankruptcy Rule 6006 and 9014.

WHEREFORE, the Debtor respectfully requests that the Court (i) enter the Bid Procedures Order substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, (ii) after the Sale Hearing, enter a Sale Order in a form to be submitted to the Court at the Sale Hearing, and (iii) grant such other and further relief as the Court may deem proper.

Respectfully submitted this 2nd day of October, 2019.

ORDER (A) APPROVING BID PROCEDURES AND AUTHORIZING AND SCHEDULING AN AUCTION AT WHICH THE DEBTOR WILL SOLICIT THE HIGHEST OR BEST BID FOR THE SALE OF SUBSTANTIALLY ALL OF ITS ASSETS, (B) APPROVING NOTICE PROCEDURES RELATING TO THE ASSUMPTION AND ASSIGNMENT OF CERTAIN EXECUTORY CONTRACTS AND UNEXPIRED LEASES, AND (C) APPROVING BREAK-UP FEE

Thrush Aircraft, Inc., having filed a motion (the “Motion”) seeking various types of relief, including seeking the entry of an order (A) approving a sale and bidding process as hereinafter described to be used in connection with the proposed sale of substantially all of the Debtor’s assets (the “Acquired Assets”)², (B) approving procedures relating to the assumption and assignment of certain executory contracts and unexpired leases, including a notice of proposed cure amounts and procedures for filing any objection to the assumption and assignment of the Assigned Contracts or the proposed cure amounts (the “Notice of Assumption and Assignment of Contract,” attached as Schedule 1 hereto), (C) approving certain Stalking Horse Bidder protections consisting of a Break-Up Fee, (D) scheduling a hearing (the “Sale Hearing”) to approve the sale by the Debtor of the Acquired Assets to the Stalking Horse Bidder (or to such other successful bidder that is ultimately selected by the Debtor pursuant to the Bid Procedures), and (E) approving the form and manner of proposed notice in connection with the foregoing.

The Court held a hearing regarding the Motion on October 8, 2019 (the “Bid Procedures Hearing”); and based upon all of the evidence proffered or adduced at the Bid Procedures Hearing; and after consideration any memoranda, objections, or other pleadings filed in connection with the Bid Procedures Hearing; and after consideration of the arguments of counsel made at the Bid Procedures Hearing; and upon the entire record of this case; and it appearing that the approval of the Bid Procedures as requested in the Motion and as set forth in this Order are in the best interest of the Debtor, its estate, creditors, and other parties in interest; and after due deliberation thereon, and good and sufficient cause appearing therefor, it is hereby

FOUND AND DETERMINED THAT:

A. The Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334. Venue in this district is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409. This matter is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2)(A) and (N).

B. The relief granted herein is in the best interest of the Debtor, its estate, creditors, and other parties in interest.

C. The Debtor has articulated good faith and sufficient business reasons for the Court to (i) approve the Bid Procedures, (ii) approve the Procedures for Assumption and Assignment, (iii) approve the Stalking Horse Bidder's Break-Up Fee in the amount of $200,000.00, (iv) approve the form of Notice of Assumption and Assignment of Contract, and (v) set the date of the Auction and Sale Hearing.

D. Due, sufficient, and adequate notice of the Bid Procedures Hearing, the relief requested in the Motion, the relief granted herein, the Bid Procedures, and the Procedures for Assumption and Assignment have been given in light of the circumstances and the nature of the relief requested, and no further notice in connection with the entry of this Order is or shall be required.

E. The Bid Procedures are fair and reasonable and were negotiated in good faith and at arm's length by the Debtor and the Stalking Horse Bidder with the goal of maximizing the value of the Acquired Assets for the benefit of all creditors of the Debtor's estate.

F. The form of the Notice of Assumption and Assignment of Contract is reasonable and appropriate and ensures that each counterparty to each Assigned Contract will have sufficient notice of the potential assumption and assignment of such Assigned Contract and an opportunity to contest the Assigned Contracts Cure Amount, as well as the ability of the Stalking Horse Bidder (or such other successful bidder ultimately selected by the Debtor pursuant to the Bid Procedures) to provide adequate assurance of future performance with respect to such Assigned Contract.

G. The approval of the Break-Up Fee and entry of this Order are (i) necessary and appropriate to induce the Stalking Horse Bidder (1) to make an initial offer that will serve as a “floor” for further bidding, and (2) to negotiate and enter into the Agreement and consummate the transactions contemplated thereby; and (ii) a condition precedent to closing the transactions contemplated by the Agreement.

NOW THEREFORE IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT:

1. The Motion is granted to the extent set forth in this Order. Any objections to the Motion that pertain to the relief granted by this Order that have not been resolved or withdrawn are hereby overruled on the merits.

2. The following “Bid Procedures” are hereby approved and shall be used in connection with the proposed sale of the Acquired Assets:

A. Requirements Applicable to all Qualified Bids: These procedures govern offers for the Acquired Assets (“Bids”) submitted both prior to and during the Auction. Bids submitted in conformity with the requirements specified in subsections (1) through (5), below, are Qualified Bids and may be considered by the Seller. Defined terms in these Bid Procedures shall have the meanings assigned in the Template APA (defined below).

(1) Bidder Qualifications. The Stalking Horse Bidder is deemed to be a Qualified Bidder at the Auction. No other prospective bidder will be permitted to bid pre-Auction or at the Auction unless such party has been deemed “financially qualified” by the Debtor and its counsel Stone & Baxter, LLP (“S&B”). A “financially qualified” bidder is one who has demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Debtor and S&B that it has the financial and other wherewithal and is properly authorized to consummate the transaction contemplated by the bid and to Close on or before November 15, 2019, or who has provided satisfactory proof of authorization and committed lending sufficient to consummate the transaction (a “Qualified Bidder”). All Bids and inquiries prior to the Auction must be submitted through S&B.

(2) Bids to be written and substantially uniform. Bids submitted pre-

Auction and at the Auction must be substantively in the form of the template asset purchase agreement attached to the Motion as Exhibit B (the "Template APA"). The Bid must be delivered to the Seller, through S&B, in the form of an executed "clean" version of the Template APA, accompanied by a redlined version to reflect any proposed changes to the terms and conditions of the Template APA. A Microsoft Word® Version of the Template APA may be obtained by contacting S&B.

- (3) Absence of Contingencies. Submission of a Qualified Bid shall not constitute a waiver of any unsatisfied condition precedent described in Section 3.1 of the Template APA, except that the following conditions shall be waived by the submission of a Qualified Bid: (1) any due diligence contingency, (2) any financing contingency; and (3) approval from any board of directors, shareholders, or otherwise. No Qualified Bid may be reduced, revoked, or withdrawn prior to the end of the Auction. Except for the Stalking Horse Bid and any Qualified Bid announced as the opening Qualified Bid at the Auction, Bids delivered prior to the beginning of the Auction will not be shared among Bidders.
- (4) The Bid Deadline and the Topping Bid. All Qualified Bids must be received prior to 5:00 p.m. local time in Macon, Georgia on Friday, October 25, 2019 (the "Bid Deadline"). Topping Bid means a Qualified Bid that provides a purchase price equal to or greater than the sum of (1) the Cash Price to Wells Fargo, plus (2) the Promissory Note Purchase Price, plus (3) the DIP Forgiveness Amount, plus (4) the Promissory Notes Payment (as identified and reported to the Bankruptcy Court prior to seven (7) days before the Auction Date), and plus (5) $250,000.00 (the "Topping Bid"). The amount of the Topping Bid will be announced to all known Qualified Bidders on or before October 23, 2019. If a Qualified Bid that is a Topping Bid is received, the Auction will be held in accordance with the procedures below. If a Topping Bid is not received by the Bid Deadline, the Debtor will dispense with the Auction.
- (5) Good Faith Deposit. Bids submitted pre-Auction must be accompanied by a cash or cash-equivalent earnest money deposit in the amount of $250,000.00 (the "Good Faith Deposit") under substantially similar terms as the Agreement. The Good Faith Deposit must be tendered by each Qualified Bidder by the time of submittal of such party's Topping Bid, by wire transfer or in cash-equivalent certified funds. The Good Faith Deposit will be forfeited in the event the Bidder of a Prevailing Bid or Back-Up Bid defaults under the terms of Template APA (or, if applicable, the Stalking Horse APA) evidencing the Accepted or Provisionally Accepted Bid. Good Faith Deposits will be refunded to unsuccessful Bidders, other than Back-Up Bids, within one (1) business day following Court Approval. Refunds to Back-Up Bids will be made within one (1) Business Day following the Closing of the Prevailing Bid. Qualified Credit Bidders shall not be required to tender a Good Faith Deposit.

B. The Auction. Subject to subparagraph A(4) above, the Acquired Assets will be offered for sale at Auction. Bids will be solicited and entertained by the Seller substantially in accordance with the provisions of these Procedures, subject to announcements at the beginning of the Auction. Announcements by the Seller at the Auction will supplement the following Procedures, unless inconsistent with an express requirement set out below. Announcements and Bids made at the Auction will be recorded and transcribed by a Certified Court Reporter(s) (the “Bid Record”).

- (1) Simultaneous Auction. All assets of the Debtor will be auctioned simultaneously, with Qualified Bids sought in each round. Qualified Bidders may select which executory contracts and Promissory Note Payments of the Debtor they wish to have included in their bids as each round of bids is submitted. Rounds will continue until such time as no higher or better Qualified Bids are offered. Any Bid not designated as the Prevailing Bid or a Back-Up Bid shall be deemed rejected at the time Court Authorization is obtained on the Prevailing Bid and Back-Up Bid.
- (2) Announcement of Highest and Best Qualified Bid at Beginning of Auction. The highest and best Qualified Bid received prior to the beginning of the Auction will be announced as the opening bid. At the Auction, Qualified Bidders and/or the Stalking Horse Bidder (it being understood that the Stalking Horse Bidder shall be deemed to be a Qualified Bidder) may submit successive bids in increments of at least $50,000.00 (“Incremental Bids”) cash greater than the prior bid for the purchase of the Acquired Assets until there is only one offer that the Debtor determines (in the exercise of its reasonable discretion) is the highest or best offer for the Acquired Assets (the “Prevailing Bid”).
- (3) Conduct of Auction. The Auction will continue until bidding is complete and the Seller, after consulting with Wells Fargo and the Unsecured Creditors Committee, selects the Prevailing and Back-Up Bid(s), and determines that such bid(s) are from Qualified Bidders. Qualified Bidders will be polled for bids in each round in the order in which bids were received, ending with the Stalking Horse Bidder.
- (4) Qualified Bidder Representative Must Be Present at the Auction. Qualified Bidders must be represented by a representative who is physically present at the Auction with authority to sign all written amendments to the Template APA submitted in advance of or at the Auction that are necessary to conform the Template APA to each bid made by such Qualified Bidder at the Auction (a “Qualified Bidder Representative”). Qualified Bidder Representatives must register with and be certified by S&B prior to being able to participate in the Auction.

- (5) Bids at the Auction Must Be in Writing. Incremental Bids submitted by Qualified Bidders at each round of the Auction must be announced from a designated podium and recorded in the Bid Record. Verbal bids must be conformed to each Qualified Bidder's Template APA and initialed by the bidder's authorized representative before the next round of bidding. Adequate time between rounds of bidding will be granted to allow the written bids to be conformed to reflect the increased bids offered through the preceding round.
- (6) Bid Value of Assumed Liabilities. The bid value of Assumed Liabilities included in any bids (which, solely for purposes of determining the Prevailing Bid, shall be deemed to include the Promissory Notes Payment described the Agreement with the Stalking Horse Bidder) will be determined by the Debtor in its absolute discretion, provided that the Debtor shall determine the bid value of each Assumed Liability consistently for all Bids submitted which include such Assumed Liability in the Aggregate Purchase Price.
- (8) Rejection of Bids. The Debtor reserves the right to reject any or all Qualified Bids at any time before a Qualified Bid is accepted as a Prevailing Bid.
- (9) Credit Bids. A Bidder holding a claim found by the Bankruptcy Court to be an allowed claim that is secured by property of the Debtor's estate may "credit bid" at the Auction (a "Qualified Credit Bid"), to the extent authorized by 11 U.S.C. § 363 (k) (a "Credit Bidder"), provided that such Credit Bidder has filed a proof of claim in the bankruptcy case and been financially qualified by S&B with respect to their ability to pay or otherwise satisfy at Closing: (i) all amounts required to be paid at the Closing under the Template APA and (ii) the amount of the Bid in excess of the Credit Bid ("Qualified Credit Bidder"). Qualified Credit Bids are subject to all requirements of these Sales Procedures.
- (10) Announcement of Provisionally Accepted Bids. At the conclusion of the Auction, the Debtor will announce the highest and best bid or Prevailing Bid. The Debtor will then accept the second highest and best bid as the Back-Up Bid (the "Back-Up Bid"). Final Asset Purchase Agreements will be executed by the Debtor and each of the parties constituting the Prevailing Bid and the Back-Up Bid before leaving the Auction.
- (11) Location of and Admission to the Auction. The Auction will be conducted at the at the Cherry Blossom Suite, Fickling & Co. Building, Suite 1600, 577 Mulberry Street, Macon, Georgia 31201, or at such other location as may be designated by the Debtor commencing at 10:00 o'clock, a.m. Eastern Time on the 29th day of October, 2019 and will continue from day-to-day or time-to-time until the Prevailing Bid and Back-Up Bid are announced. The Auction will be a private sale. Only Qualified Bidders and parties in interest in the Bankruptcy Case, or their authorized representatives or attorneys, will be admitted, in person, to the Auction. There will be no provision for general telephone monitoring of the Auction, but Qualified Bidder Representatives may communicate by electronic or any other means with Qualified Bidders between each round of bidding.

- (13) Interested Party Consultations. The Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the “Unsecured Creditors Committee”), holders of claims filed as secured in the Bankruptcy Case (whether or not “allowed” by order of the Court as of the time of the Auction), parties to Capital Leases with the Debtor, and the United States Trustee or her representative may attend the Auction, and provided such parties are in attendance at the Auction, are “Interested Parties” for the purpose of these Bid Procedures. Before the beginning of the Auction and between any round of bidding, upon request of any Interested Party or its authorized counsel in attendance at the Auction, the Seller and S&B will consult with such Interested Party concerning any matter pertaining to the Auction. The consultations will be held outside of the bidding room and shall not unduly delay the Auction. No objection by an Interested Party to any announcement made at the Auction or to any Bid or other occurrence during the Auction shall be stated on the Bid Record or communicated to a Qualified Bidder, but shall be directed solely to the Debtor and to S&B and, if so directed and not resolved, shall be stated on the Bid Record following the final round of bidding and shall thereupon be deemed preserved until the conclusion of opening statements at the Sale Hearing (as defined below).
- (14) Hearing on Approval of Sale. Following the conclusion of the Auction, pursuant to the Motion Seeking Authority to Sell the Assets, the Seller will seek authorization from the Bankruptcy Court to sell the Acquired Assets to the Qualified Bidder submitting the Prevailing Bid or Back-Up Bid, as applicable, and to consummate the sale. Such hearing will be held in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Middle District of Georgia, in the Courtroom B of such Court, located at 433 Cherry Street, Macon, GA 31201, or at such other location as may be designated by the Court, commencing at 10:00 a.m. Eastern Time on the 30th day of October, 2019, or such later date and time set by the Bankruptcy Court, (the “Sale Hearing”). The Bankruptcy Court will be requested to enter an Order authorizing the Seller to consummate the sale under 11 U.S.C. § 363, which Order will constitute Court Approval of the Sale (“Court Authorization”). No person shall have standing to appear and be heard at the Sale Hearing except as provided by law. No provision of these Bid Procedures, the certification of any person as a Qualified Bidder, attendance at the Auction, or the submittal of any Bid at the Auction, shall be construed to confer standing upon any person to appear and be heard at the Sale Hearing.

- (15) Closing; Back-Bids. If the Closing and receipt by the Debtor's estate of the cash consideration does not occur with respect to any Prevailing Bid on or before December 1, 2019, then the Debtor may close with Back-Up Bid.

3. Objections (if any) to approval of any Prevailing Bid or Back-Up Bid, approval of the sale of the Acquired Assets, or any proposed assumption and assignment of executory contracts or unexpired leases (including the amount of any Assigned Contracts Cure Amount) pursuant to any Prevailing Bid or Back-Up Bid, shall be in writing, shall set forth the name of the objecting party, the basis for the objection and the specific grounds therefor, and shall be filed with the Court and served upon each of the following on or before October 29, 2019:

5. The Debtor is authorized and directed to pay the Stalking Horse Bidder an amount equal to $200,000.00 as a breakup fee and expense reimbursement (the “Break-Up Fee”) provided, however, that the Break-Up Fee shall be due and payable to the Stalking Horse Bidder only upon: (a) the closing of a sale of the Acquired Assets (or any part thereof) to a party other than the Stalking Horse Bidder for an amount equal to or exceeding the Topping Bid and the Stalking Horse Bidder had not terminated the Agreement, with the payment of the Break-Up Fee being paid from the proceeds received upon the closing of such sale to a party other than the Stalking Horse Bidder; or (b) the confirmation of a stand-alone plan of reorganization.

6. If the Break-Up Fee becomes due and payable to the Stalking Horse Bidder under clause (a) of the preceding paragraph, no lien of any third party shall attach to the portion of the sale proceeds representing the Break-Up Fee.

7. The Bid Procedures (including the Break-Up Fee) are fair and reasonable, are reasonably calculated to produce the best and highest offers for the Acquired Assets, and will confer actual benefits upon the Debtor’s bankruptcy estate. 8. The procedures for assumption and assignment of Assigned Contracts, as described in the Motion, are approved and incorporated into this Order by reference, as though full set forth herein.

9. The form of Notice of Assumption and Assignment of Contract attached hereto as Schedule 1 is approved, and shall be served by the Debtor no later than three (3) business days after entry of this Order upon the counterparties to the Assigned Contracts. Any counterparty to a contract that receives the Notice of Assumption and Assignment of Contract and does not timely file and serve an objection in accordance with its terms, shall be forever barred from later challenging or disputing the assumption and assignment of any Assigned Contract, the Assigned Contracts Cure Amount due thereunder, and all other matters set forth in the Notice of Assumption and Assignment of Contract.

10. Within three (3) business days after the entry of this Order, the Debtor's counsel shall serve via first-class mail (addressed to the business address of such persons appearing the Debtor's records) a copy of this Order on all parties served with a copy of the Motion.

11. The Debtor shall continue to market and solicit interest in the sale of the Acquired Assets in accordance with the Bid Procedures.

13. Notwithstanding the possible applicability of the Bankruptcy Rules 6004(a), 6004(h), 6006(d), or otherwise, the terms and conditions of this Order shall be immediately and effective and enforceable upon its entry and the requirements of Bankruptcy Rules 6004(a), 6004(h), and 6006(d) are hereby waived.

14. This Court shall retain jurisdiction with respect to any matters, claims, rights, or disputes arising from or related to the implementation of this Order.

2. On October ____, 2019, the Court entered an order (the “Bidding Procedures Order”) (Dkt. ____) approving, among other things, the procedures set forth in the Sale Motion for proposed assumption and assignment of the Assigned Contracts and the form of this Notice.

3. Copies of the Sale Motion and the Bidding Procedures Order were previously sent to you. If you need a copy of either or both, please contact Ward Stone, Jr. or Matthew S. Cathey of Stone & Baxter, LLP via email or by other form of writing (using the contact information at the end of this Notice) and one of them will send a copy to you.

4. A hearing to approve the Sale Motion, which shall also address the Debtor’s request for approval of the assumption and assignment of Assigned Contracts and of the Assigned Contracts Cure Amounts (the “Sale Hearing”), will be convened on October 30, 2019 at 10:00 a.m. (Eastern Time) at the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Middle District of Georgia, 433 Cherry Street, Macon, Georgia 31201, before the Honorable Austin E. Carter, Bankruptcy Judge for the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Middle District of Georgia.

³ Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Sale Motion.

The Sale Hearing may be adjourned or rescheduled without notice other than by announcement of the adjourned date at the Sale Hearing.

5. At the Sale Hearing, the Debtor may seek to assume and assign to the Purchaser those Assigned Contracts that are identified on Exhibit 1 attached hereto (the “Potential Assignment Schedule”). The Potential Assignment Schedule identifies, among other things, the amount, if any, determined by the Debtor that must be paid to cure any existing default or pay any amount due under each Assigned Contract as of the expected date of Closing on the sale to the Purchaser (the “Assigned Contracts Cure Amount”). The Debtor reserves the right to delete items from, supplement, and modify the Potential Assignment Schedule at any time, or adjust the Assigned Contracts Cure Amount associated with any Assigned Contract listed on it. However, to the extent that the Debtor adds an Assigned Contract to the Potential Assignment Schedule or modifies any Assigned Contracts Cure Amount, the affected party shall receive a separate notice, and a new opportunity to object to such addition or modification.

6. Please be advised that the inclusion of any Assigned Contract on the Potential Assignment Schedule shall not be construed as an admission by the Debtor that such Assigned Contract is an executory contract or unexpired lease as such terms as used in Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. In addition, until the entry of any order on the Sale Motion, the Debtor may also remove any Assigned Contract from the Potential Assignment Schedule.

7. If a non-debtor party to any Assigned Contract listed on the Potential Assignment Schedule does not timely file a written objection in accordance with this notice and thereafter appear at the Sale Hearing to prosecute such objection, then

(a) such non-debtor shall be deemed to have consented to the Debtor’s assumption of the Assigned Contract;

(b) such non-debtor party shall be deemed to have consented to the assignment of the Assigned Contract to the Purchaser;

(c) the Assigned Contracts Cure Amount shall represent the sole and exclusive amount due under the Assigned Contract as of the Closing on the Sale;

(d) such non-debtor party to the Assigned Contract shall be forever barred from objecting to the Assigned Contracts Cure Amount, and forever barred and estopped from asserting any amount owed as of Closing (other than the Assigned Contracts Cure Amount) against the Debtor, the Purchaser, or any other party which might be liable under the Assigned Contract;

(e) on and after Closing, the Purchaser shall enjoy all of the Debtor's rights and benefits under the Assigned Contract without the necessity of obtaining such non-debtor party's written consent to the assumption or assignment thereof; and

(f) such non-debtor party to the Assigned Contract will be forever barred and enjoined from raising or asserting against the Purchaser any assignment fee, default, breach, or claim or pecuniary loss, or condition to assignment, arising under or related to the Assigned Contract as of the Closing or arising by reason of the Closing.

8. Objection to any Assigned Contracts Cure Amount or to assumption and assignment of the Assigned Contract to the Purchaser, including with respect to adequate assurance of future performance under the Assigned Contract by the Purchaser (an "Objection"), must be filed with the Court and served on (a) counsel to the Debtor, Stone & Baxter, LLP, Fickling & Co. Building, Suite 800, 577 Mulberry Street, Macon, Georgia 31201, Attention: Ward Stone, Jr. and Matthew S. Cathey (Email: mcathey@stoneandbaxter.com); (b) counsel to Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., Parker, Hudson, Rainer & Dobbs, LLP, 303 Peachtree Street, NE, Suite 3600, Atlanta, Georgia 30308, Attention: C. Edward Dobbs (Email: edobbs@phrd.com); (c) counsel to the Office Committee of Unsecured Creditors, Horwood Marcus & Berk Chartered, 500 W. Madison, Suite 3700, Chicago, Illinois, 60661, Attention: Aaron L. Hammer and John W. Guzzardo (Email: ahammer@hmblaw.com; jguzzardo@hmblaw.com); (d) counsel to the Stalking Horse Bidder, Martin Snow, LLP, 240 Third Street, Post Office Box 1606, Macon, Georgia 31202, Attention: John T. Hardy (Email: Elizabeth.A.Hardy@usdoj.gov).

9. An Objection must state the basis for such objection and state with specificity what Assigned Contracts Cure Amount the party to the Assigned Contract believes is required to be paid as of Closing, with appropriate documentation, as well as any other bases for the Objection, including any ground for opposing the Purchaser's assumption of the Assigned Contract.

6.6 Litigation. There are no actions, suits, proceedings or orders pending or, to Purchaser's knowledge, threatened against or affecting Purchaser at law or in equity, or before or by any federal, state, municipal or other governmental department, commission, board, bureau, agency or instrumentality, domestic or foreign, which would prevent Purchaser's performance under this Agreement and the other agreements contemplated hereby to which Purchaser is a party or the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby.

ARTICLE VII TERMINATION

7.1 Termination. This Agreement may, by written notice, be terminated at any time prior to the Closing:

(a) by either Purchaser or Seller if a material breach of any provision of this Agreement has been committed by the other party, and not cured during any relevant cure period, and such breach has not been waived by the non-breaching party in writing;

(b) by Purchaser if any of the conditions to Closing set forth in Article III have not been satisfied as of the Closing or if satisfaction of such a condition becomes impossible (other than through failure of Purchaser to comply with its obligations under this Agreement) and Purchaser has not waived such condition on or before the Closing;

(c) by Seller if any of the conditions to Closing set forth in Article III have not been satisfied as of the Closing or if satisfaction of such a condition becomes impossible (other than through failure of Seller to comply with its obligations under this Agreement) and Seller has not waived such condition on or before the Closing;

(d) by Seller upon the occurrence of a Purchaser Default (as defined in Section 9.1) or if the conditions precedent to Seller's obligations described in Article III in order to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby have not been satisfied within the time periods provided for therein (or waived in writing by Seller), unless Seller's willful or knowing breach of this Agreement has caused the condition to be unsatisfied;

(e) by Purchaser upon the occurrence of a Seller Default (as defined in Section 9.2) or if the conditions precedent to Purchaser's obligations described in Article III in order to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby have not been satisfied within the time periods provided for therein (or waived in writing by Purchaser), unless Purchaser's willful or knowing breach of this Agreement has caused the condition to be unsatisfied;

(f) by Purchaser if the Closing has not occurred on or prior to November 15, 2019, notwithstanding good faith efforts on both sides to satisfy the conditions precedent for the transaction, or by Seller or Purchaser if the Closing has not occurred on or prior to December 1, 2019, notwithstanding good faith efforts on both sides to satisfy the conditions precedent for the transaction.

(g) by Purchaser, prior to the Auction Date, if Purchaser shall not have received by the Auction Date reasonable assurances (in a form reasonably satisfactory to the Purchaser) from selected critical vendors of Seller that such vendors (including without limitation GE Aviation and Pratt & Whitney) will continue to do business with the Purchaser after the Closing on terms and conditions acceptable to Purchaser;

(h) by Purchaser, prior to the Auction Date, if Purchaser shall not have received by the Auction Date reasonable assurances (in a form reasonably satisfactory to Purchaser) from Ex-Im Bank that Ex-Im Bank will continue to do business with Purchaser after the Closing Date on terms and conditions acceptable to Purchaser;

(i) automatically without any further action by Seller or Purchaser if Court Approval is not obtained following the hearing to obtain the Court Approval; and

(j) by mutual written agreement of Purchaser and Seller at any time.

Remedies upon termination are limited to those provided under Article IX of this Agreement.

ARTICLE VIII BANKRUPTCY COURT APPROVAL

8.1 Break-Up Fee. In consideration for Purchaser having expended considerable time and expense in connection with this Agreement and the negotiation thereof and the identification and quantification of the assets of Seller, Seller shall pay Purchaser a break-up fee in an amount equal to $200,000.00 ("Break-Up Fee") on the first business day following (a) the closing of a sale of the Acquired Assets (or any part thereof) to a party other than Purchaser ("Competing Transaction"), with the payment of the Break-Up Fee being paid from the proceeds received upon the closing of the Competing Transaction; or (b) the confirmation of a stand-alone plan of reorganization.

8.2 Bid Deadline. Any bidder, other than Purchaser, wishing to submit a bid for the Acquired Assets must submit its bid to Seller in accordance with the Bidding Procedures Order.

8.3 Bids. In conducting the bid process, additional bids shall be made as follows: the initial increment shall be not less than $250,000.00 over the sum of the Cash Price to Wells Fargo, the Promissory Note Purchase Price, the DIP Forgiveness Amount, and the Promissory Notes Payment ("Topping Bid"), and subsequent increments shall be at least $50,000.00 for each bid.

8.4 Priority. The Break-Up Fee shall be entitled to super priority administrative expense status and shall be payable directly from the proceeds of any Competing Transaction.

ARTICLE IX DEFAULTS AND REMEDIES

9.1 Defaults by Purchaser and Remedies of Seller. If Purchaser fails, neglects, or refuses to perform any of Purchaser's obligations under this Agreement beyond applicable cure periods, materially breaches any representation or warranty under this Agreement, or otherwise defaults under this Agreement, and such Purchaser default is not cured during the cure period permitted under Section 9.3 following a Default Notice to Purchaser ("Purchaser Default"), Seller shall have the right to terminate and cancel this Agreement by written notice to Purchaser and Seller shall be authorized to draw in full on the Good Faith Deposit and retain the proceeds thereof as Seller's sole and exclusive remedy for Purchaser's Default, whereupon Purchaser and Seller shall be relieved of all obligations under this Agreement, except for any hold harmless, defense, and indemnity provisions of this Agreement that expressly survive a termination of this Agreement. Purchaser and Seller recognize that actual damages cannot be determined or will be difficult to ascertain with a reasonable degree of certainty and acknowledge that this provision constitutes a reasonable payment to Seller as a result of Purchaser's Default in accordance with O.C.G.A. § 13-6-7 and does not constitute a penalty. Purchaser acknowledges that upon termination of this Agreement, notwithstanding any other remedy at law or in equity either party may have against the other, Seller may immediately sell any Acquired Asset to any other party.

9.2 Default by Seller and Remedies of Purchaser. If for any reason Seller fails, neglects, or refuses to perform Seller's obligations under this Agreement, breaches any representation or warranty under this Agreement, or otherwise defaults under this Agreement, and such Seller default is not cured during the cure period permitted under Section 9.3 following a Default Notice to Seller ("Seller Default"), Purchaser shall have any one or more of the following remedies, as Purchaser's sole and exclusive remedies:

- (a) Purchaser shall have the right to seek specific performance;
- (b) Purchaser may elect to terminate and cancel this Agreement by written notice to Seller, whereupon Seller shall return the Good Faith Deposit to Purchaser, and Purchaser shall retain its right to pursue against Seller any available action for money damages; and
- (c) to the extent Purchaser is entitled to indemnification, defense, and being held harmless as provided in this Agreement, or if Seller defaults under this Agreement by conveying title to any of the Property then subject to this Agreement to a person other than Purchaser, or its permitted assignee, then Purchaser may pursue damages from Seller.

The foregoing provisions shall not limit the right of Purchaser to recover costs and attorney' and paralegals' fees as provided in this Agreement in the event of litigation arising out of this Agreement, whether such litigation concerns the recovery of Purchaser's costs and expenses or otherwise. Purchaser's exercise of any remedy under this Agreement shall not operate to waive Purchaser's right to exercise any other remedy under this Agreement, it being agreed that all such remedies are cumulative and non-exclusive of the other remedies.

9.3 Notice and Opportunity to Cure. If either party considers the other to be in default under this Agreement, such party shall provide to the other party written notice ("Default Notice") specifying in reasonable detail the act or omission alleged to constitute the default. The party receiving the factually correct Default Notice shall not be considered to be in default under this Agreement unless (i) the act or omission constituting the default is not cured within ten (10) Business Days following receipt of the Default Notice, or (ii) in the event the act or omission constituting the default is not reasonably susceptible of cure within such ten (10) Business Day period, the party receiving such Default Notice fails to commence, within such ten (10) Business Day period, all actions reasonably calculated to effect cure of such default and/or to diligently and continuously prosecute all such actions to completion such that, in any event, the default is cured within thirty (30) days following the date of receipt of the Default Notice. Notwithstanding the foregoing, neither Purchaser nor Seller shall be obligated to provide a Default Notice, nor shall either Party have any right to cure, with respect to any failure by either Party to make any of the Closing deliveries required by this Agreement on the Closing Date. The Parties hereto stipulate and agree that as of the Effective Date hereof, neither has knowledge of any fact which as of such date, or with the passage of time, would cause the other party to be in default hereunder, giving the non-defaulting Party the right to issue a Default Notice as contemplated under this Section.

9.4 Specific Performance. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, any claim for specific performance of this Agreement or any of the other Transaction Documents, and any claim to enforce the terms of the Sale Order against a Party or a third party, may be submitted for final determination to the Bankruptcy Court or to any other court of competent jurisdiction.

9.5 Survival. The provisions of this Article IX shall survive the expiration or any termination of this Agreement.

ARTICLE X ADDITIONAL AGREEMENTS

10.1 Offers of Employment. Purchaser anticipates making offers of ongoing employment (but is not obligated to do so) to those employees identified by Purchaser on a list that may be updated up through ten days before Closing; provided that such list shall include more than 75% of the full-time Company employees as of the Closing. If and to the extent that Purchaser hires any such identified employees, the Purchaser will assume obligations related to vacation and sick leave, if any, with respect to any such employees of Seller hired by the Purchaser, but the Purchaser shall have no liability for any severance pay for any employees of Seller not hired by the Purchaser or any other liability (including liability for future severance pay) for any other employees of Seller not hired by Purchaser.

10.2 Tax Matters

(a) All transfer, documentary, sales, use, stamp, registration and other such Taxes and fees (including any penalties and interest thereon), if any, incurred in connection with this Agreement shall be paid by Seller when due, and Seller shall, at its own expense, file all necessary Tax Returns and other documentation with respect to all such transfer, documentary, sales, use, stamp, registration and other Taxes and fees, and, if required by applicable law, Purchaser shall join in the execution of any such Tax Returns and other documentation. Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Section 10.2 shall not be deemed to modify the required terms of the Sale Order.

(b) Any ad valorem obligations, including all real property taxes, personal property taxes, and similar taxes imposed on a periodic basis, in each case levied with respect to the Acquired Assets for a taxable period which includes (but does not end on) the Closing Date shall be paid by Purchaser.

10.3 Further Transfers. Seller shall execute and deliver such further instruments of conveyance and transfer and take such additional action as Purchaser may reasonably request to effect, consummate, confirm or evidence the transfer to Purchaser of the Acquired Assets and any other transactions contemplated hereby.

10.4 Expenses. Except as otherwise provided herein, and subject to the terms of the DIP Financing Agreement and Budget, Seller and Purchaser shall pay all of their own fees, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, fees, costs and expenses of legal counsel, investment bankers, brokers or other representatives and consultants and appraisal fees, costs and expenses) incurred in connection with the negotiation of the this Agreement and the other agreements contemplated hereby, the performance of its obligations hereunder and thereunder, and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby.

10.5 Books and Records. Seller will allow Purchaser's representatives, attorneys and accountants access to the Books and Records, upon reasonable request during Seller's normal business hours, for the purpose of examining and copying the same in connection with any matter whether or not related to or arising out of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby.

10.6 Third Party Consents Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, this Agreement shall not constitute an agreement to transfer, sell or otherwise assign any instrument, contract, lease, license, permit or other agreement or arrangement relating to the Acquired Assets which is not permitted to be assigned in connection with a transaction of the type contemplated by this Agreement.

10.7 Destruction. If, prior to the Closing, there shall occur any damage or destruction to any or all of the Acquired Assets by fire, earthquake, erosion, flooding, or force of nature, then Seller shall immediately notify Purchaser of such fact in writing. Purchaser shall then have the option, in its sole discretion and judgment, either to terminate this Agreement or to complete this transaction as provided for in this Agreement. Purchaser shall give written notice of such election to Seller on or before the later to occur of (a) the date which is thirty (30) days after Purchaser shall have received written notice of such damage or destruction from Seller, or (b) the Closing Date, and if necessary, the Closing Date shall be extended to allow Purchaser at least thirty (30) days within which to make said election. If Purchaser elects to close this transaction, all insurance proceeds collected by Seller prior to Closing shall be payable as provided in the governing insurance policy or policies. Upon any election by Purchaser to terminate this Agreement pursuant hereto, the Good Faith Deposit shall be returned to Purchaser and neither party shall have any further rights, duties or obligations hereunder, except with regard to provisions that by their express terms survive the termination of this Agreement. If Purchaser fails to make any election within the time permitted, it will be deemed to have elected to proceed with this transaction.

10.8 Condemnation. If, prior to Closing, there shall occur any condemnation of all or any portion of the Acquired Assets, Seller shall give prompt written notice thereof to Purchaser, and Purchaser shall have the option, in its sole judgment and discretion, either to terminate this Agreement or to complete this transaction as provided for in this Agreement. Purchaser shall give written notice of such election to Seller on or before the later to occur of (a) the date which is thirty (30) days after Purchaser shall have received written notice from Seller of such condemnation or (b) the Closing Date. If necessary, the Closing Date shall be extended to allow Purchaser at least thirty (30) days within which to make such election. If Purchaser elects to close this transaction, all condemnation proceeds collected by Seller prior to Closing and attributable to collateral in which Wells Fargo has a first-priority lien shall be credited against the Cash Price to Wells Fargo at Closing. If Purchaser elects to terminate this Agreement pursuant hereto, the Good Faith Deposit shall be returned to Purchaser and neither party shall have any further rights or obligations hereunder, except with regard to provisions that shall by their express terms survive the termination of this Agreement. If Purchaser fails to make any election within the time permitted therefor, it shall be deemed to have elected to proceed with this transaction.

NEGOTIABLE PROMISSORY NOTE

FOR VALUE RECEIVED, the undersigned, HHM AVIATION FINANCING, LLC, a Georgia limited liability company ("Maker"), hereby promises to pay to the order of WELLS FARGO BANK, NATIONAL ASSOCIATION (together with its successors and assigns, "Payee") at 1 South Broad Street, 8th Floor - MAC Y1375-084, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19107, on or before the date required by this Negotiable Promissory Note (this "Note"), the principal sum of ONE MILLION, ONE HUNDRED FIFTY THOUSAND AND NO/100 DOLLARS ($1,150,000.000), together with interest from and after the date hereof on the unpaid principal balance outstanding at a rate per annum equal to 5.00%.

The outstanding principal amount of this Note shall bear interest, calculated daily on the basis of actual days elapsed in a year of 360 days. Interest that accrues on the unpaid principal balance of this Note shall be paid as follows: one interest-only installment due on October 1, 2020; one interest-only installment due on April 1, 2021; one interest-only installment due on October 1, 2021; and one interest-only installment due on April 1, 2022. The outstanding principal balance of this Note and all accrued and unpaid interest shall be due and payable on October 1, 2022. All payments hereunder shall be made in lawful currency of the United States of America and remitted to Payee at Payee's address as set forth in the first paragraph hereof or at such other address as Payee may from time to time designate in writing to Maker. Maker shall have the right to prepay this Note, in whole at any time or in part from time to time, without premium or penalty.

Each of the following events shall constitute an "Event of Default": (a) Maker shall default in the payment of any principal, interest or other amount under this Note on the due date thereof and shall fail to cure such default within 10 days following its receipt from Payee of written notice of such default (any such written notice to be sent to Maker's address as set forth below or to such other address as Maker shall hereafter specify in writing to Payee); or (b) Maker shall (i) make an assignment for the benefit of its creditors, or become unable to pay (or admit in writing its inability to pay) its debts when they become due; (ii) file a petition or any other pleading for relief under any bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, arrangement, or other debtor relief law, including, without limitation, title 11 of the United States Code (each a "Debtor Relief Law"); (iii) have filed against it a petition or any other pleading under any Debtor Relief Law if the same is not dismissed within 60 days after the filing thereof; (iv) suffer (or consent to) the appointment of a receiver, trustee, liquidator, administrator, conservator or other custodian for all or any significant part of its assets; or (v) sell, assign or otherwise transfer all or a substantial part of its assets or dissolve or cease doing business in the ordinary course; or (c) Maker shall suffer a judgment to be entered against it for an amount that exceeds by $100,000 the uncontested insurance to satisfy such judgment, if such judgment is not satisfied in full within 60 days after entry thereof (unless and to the extent bonded on appeal), or the judgment creditor commences any levy or execution on, or other enforcement action with respect to, such judgment. Upon or after the occurrence of an Event of Default, Payee may declare the then outstanding principal balance and accrued interest hereof to be, and the same shall thereupon become, immediately due and payable without notice to or demand upon Maker, all of which Maker hereby expressly waives. If this Note is collected by or through an attorney-at-law, Maker agrees to pay, in addition to the unpaid principal balance and accrued interest hereof, reasonable attorneys' fees (in an amount not to exceed 15% of the unpaid principal and accrued interest owing on this Note), together with all costs of collection.

Wherever possible, each provision of this Note shall be interpreted in such manner as to be effective and valid under applicable law, but if any provision of this Note shall be prohibited or invalid under applicable law, such provision shall be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or invalidity without invalidating the remainder of such provision or remaining provisions of this Note. No delay or failure on the part of Payee in the exercise of any right or remedy thereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor as an acquiescence in any default, nor shall any single or partial exercise by Payee of any right or remedy preclude any other right or remedy. This Note is intended to take effect as an instrument under seal and shall be governed by, and construed and enforced according to, the internal laws of the State of Georgia (without giving effect to Georgia's conflict-of-law rules). If at any time and for any reason whatsoever, the interest rate payable on this Note shall exceed the maximum rate of interest permitted to be charged under applicable law, such interest rate shall be reduced automatically to the maximum rate of interest permitted to be charged under applicable law.
